

1958 Iowa Master Farm Homemakers Guild Inductees

Meet Iowa's Master Farm Homemakers for this year. They have been selected from a large group of nominees by a committee of judges.

This is the 18th year that Wal/aces Farmer has made Master Farm Homemakers awards. By recognizing some outstanding farm women, we hope to throw the spotlight on the many farm wives and mothers who are contributing greatly toward making their homes and communities a better place to live.

Judges for 1958 were Louise Rosenfeld, assistant director, extension, Iowa State College; Mrs. Buena Mockmore, extension specialist, Iowa State College; and Mrs. Wilbur Molison, Master Farm Homemaker, Poweshiek County.

Mrs. W.D. Miller - IMFH Class of 1958

Grundy County

Mrs. Miller has a long record for good homemaking and responsible community service.

She is the mother of three daughters, and one son. She has eight grandchildren.

Mrs. Miller is active in her church, has served as county chairman of Farm Bureau women, and is serving now on the 4-H county committee.

Hobbies include her yard flowers.

Fern Cook - IMFH Class of 1958

Hardin County

Mrs. Cook has served as county Farm Bureau women's chairman. She has been a 4-H club leader and has served on the state advisory committee for the extension service.

An active member of her church, Mrs. Cook has served in many capacities. She is the mother of three sons and has three grandchildren.

Hobbies include flower arrangements and flower show judging.

Mrs. Marvin Paul - IMFH Class of 1958

Clarke County

Mrs. Paul takes special interest in organizations that involve her family. These include her church, 4-H clubs, and P.T. A.

This year Mrs. Paul is serving as chairman of the Family Living committee for her county. She is the mother of three daughters and one son.

She raises a large garden and loves to sew.

Lorene Robie - IMFH Class of 1958

Wright County

Mrs. Robie is the mother of three attractive daughters. Her wide range of interests include her church, schools, 4-H clubs, and many other organizations.

Mrs. Robie is chairman of township homeowners, an active member in the Farm Bureau women's organization, a Sunday school teacher and department Superintendent.

She loves to read, sew, and work in her garden.

Lillian McElroy - IMFH Class of 1958

Fremont County

Mrs. McElroy lives an active and busy life.

Mother of three daughters and one son, she belongs to and is active in many community organizations. These include her church, Family Living committee, and 4-H clubs.

She is now president of the Woman's Community Club at Percival.

Her beautiful home is the center of many community activities.