

1959 Iowa Master Farm Homemakers Guild Inductees

Irene Fuller - IMFH Class of 1959

Cherokee County

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Fuller own and operate a 160-acre general farm. They have three children; George, a pre-Divinity student at St. John's University in Minnesota; Jean, a student at Creighton in Omaha; and Glenn, a sophomore in high school.

Both parents and children have been active in 4-H club work for many years, The young people have held county offices and received high honors.

Mrs. Fuller has worked in both Farm Bureau and extension programs in her county, and on the county board of Social Welfare.

She is active in the Immaculate Conception church in Cherokee.

Maxine Gray - IMFH Class of 1959

Mahaska County

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Gray own and operate a 200 acre farm near Oskaloosa, and rent an extra 120 acres. They are the parents of two children-Kenneth, a student at the University of Iowa, and Emily, who attends high school in Oskaloosa.

Mrs. Gray is active and carries responsibilities in Farm Bureau and extension programs.

She has been superintendent of the primary department in the Methodist church in Oskaloosa for 7 years.

She is president of a chapter on the P.E.O. and serves on the Youth Center Council in Oskaloosa.

Lorrene Klever - IMFH Class of 1959

Audubon County

Mr. and Mrs. Klever own and operate a 160-acre farm, renting an extra 120 acres. They are the parents of six children--four sons and two daughters.

Mrs. Klever has a busy life keeping up with the various interests of her family and taking time for community service. She has been a 4-H club leader and has served on the county committee. Last spring, she was chosen by the county committee to receive the 4-H club alumni award.

Mrs. Klever has served as county extension Family Living committee chairman and as president of the Audubon Memorial Hospital Auxiliary.

She is now president of the board for Friendship Home, a new home in Audubon county for aging guests.

Mrs. Roy (Irene) Kramer - IMFH Class of 1959

Black Hawk County

Mrs. Kramer lives on the 160-acre farm she and her husband purchased before his death in 1949. Mrs. Kramer's oldest son, John, graduated from Iowa State University last spring and is now operating the farm. Jerry, her second son, has had three years at the University. Kathy is in elementary school.

Five years ago, Mrs. Kramer started teaching in nearby rural schools. In addition to this, she has served as a 4-H leader, a Sunday School teacher, and as treasurer for the local school.

Fern Hahn - IMFH Class of 1959

Scott County

Mrs. Hahn is the daughter of a Master Farmer--Herbert Schneckloth (1940). Mr. and Mrs.

Hahn live on the farm that has been in the Hahn family for five generations.

They are the parents of four children--Barbara and Sandra, who attend high school in Davenport; Richard and James, who are in elementary school.

A former 4-H club girl herself, Mrs. Hahn has recently taken on the leadership of her township 4-H club girls. She teaches in the kindergarten department of St. John's Lutheran church in Davenport.

Mary Stewart - IMFH Class of 1959

Washington County

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart own around 450 acres, farming only part of it themselves. They are the parents of four children, three married daughters living near home and a son who is a music teacher in New Mexico. They have 19 grandchildren.

Mrs. Stewart has a long record of community service. She has been a 4-H club leader, president of the P.T.A., active in the local Y.W.C.A. extension and Farm Bureau programs.

Her biggest interest is the kindergarten of the United Presbyterian Sunday School.