

1960 Iowa Master Farm Homemakers Guild Inductees

Vera Bergman - IMFH Class of 1960

Osceola County

Mr. and Mrs. Bergman own and operate a 400-acre farm. They have three children - John is a graduate student at the University of Michigan, Judy attends St. Olaf's College in Minnesota, 11-year-old Mary is at home. Mrs. Bergman has taken an active part in many community programs. She has worked with the extension service, serving as a 4-H Club leader and on the county committee.

The family is active in the Lutheran Church in Harris.

Mrs. Hilman Gaarder - IMFH Class of 1960

Worth County

Mr. and Mrs. Gaarder are well known and very much loved, not only in their own community, but throughout the county. They have four children and 16 grandchildren.

Mrs. Gaarder has been active in community life for many years. A former music teacher, she has been interested in promoting good music throughout her community. She helped to organize the Worth County Women's Chorus and still sings in it. She has been a 4-H Club leader. Mr. and Mrs. Gaarder belonged to the Lutheran Church in Northwood.

Maxine Louden - IMFH Class of 1960

Jasper County

Mr. and Mrs. Louden have three children; their daughter, Linda, is an extension economist, Gordon attends Iowa State University, and Regina, 8, is at home.

Mrs. Louden does a fine job of homemaking, taking great interest not only in her house, but with her flowers and garden. But she still has time for community service.

Interested and active in the extension program in her county, Mrs. Louden has served as a 4-H Club leader and on the Family Living Committee. She is also active in the local Federated Club where she has served as president.

The family is active in the Congregational Church.

Mary Murphy - IMFH Class of 1960

Grundy County

Mr. and Mrs. Murphy own and operate a livestock farm. They have recently completed a major remodeling job on their home.

Mrs. Murphy enjoys working with young people and has served as a 4-H Club leader for many years. She has also been a member of the extension planning committee in her county.

Mr. and Mrs. Murphy are members of St. Mary's Catholic Church in Dike where Mrs. Murphy is president of the Altar Guild.

Sylvia Schneider - IMFH Class of 1960

Plymouth County

Mr. and Mrs. Schneider farm 490 acres where they carry on an extensive livestock feeding program. They have four children; Sheryl, 16; Kristy, 15; James, 13; and John, 4. The older children are active in many 4-H Club projects.

Mr. and Mrs. Schneider belong to the United Church of Christ in LeMars, where Mrs. Schneider has served in many capacities.

Mrs. Schneider has been a 4-H Club leader and served on the county committee. She is also a member of the school board for the LeMars Community Schools.

Loey Vosseller - IMFH Class of 1960

Bremer County

Mr. and Mrs. Vosseller live on a farm that has been in the family for several generations. They have two children, Robert, who is assistant cashier for the State Bank in Waverly, and JoAnn, a former extension home economist who is married and lives in California.

Mr. and Mrs. Vosseller are members of the Methodist Church in Waverly where Mrs. Vosseller has taught Sunday School for many years. Both are active members of the Farm Bureau.

Mrs. Vosseller has served as 4-H Club leader and on the extension Family Living Committee. She has also served as secretary of the school board.
